The Seniors of '55

Beverly High School

Beverly, Massachusetts

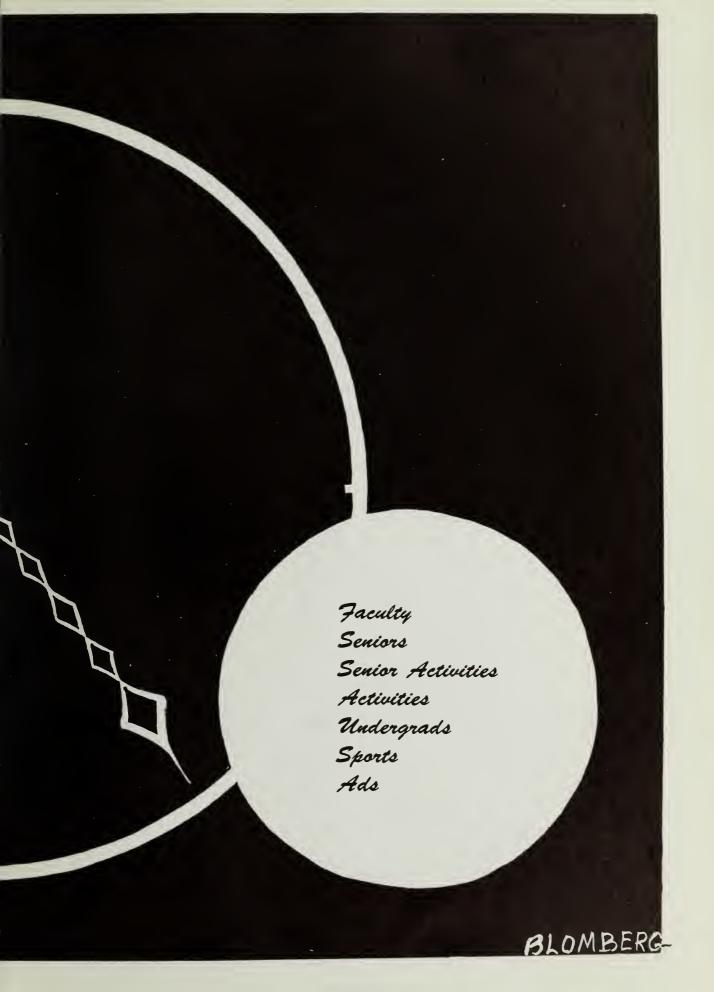

REWERD

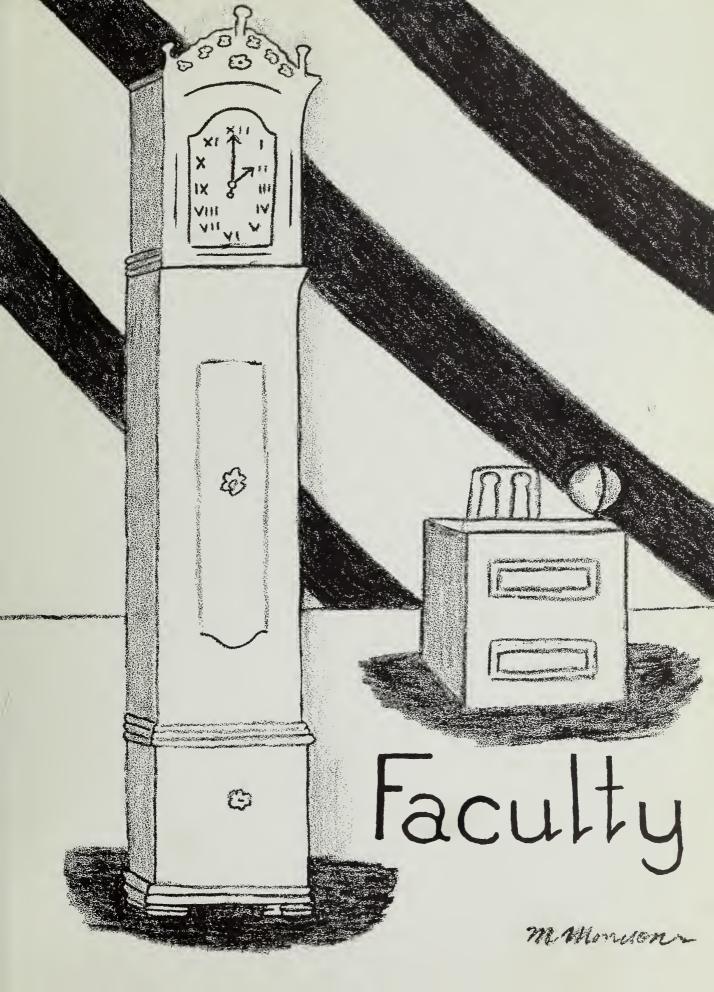

Time, that factor over which we have no control, is rapidly bringing to a close our three years at Beverly High School. Pleasant memories will linger long—memories of our associations with classmates and faculty. We hope that the BEVERLEGA will bring to mind these happy associations after we have gone our separate ways.

CONTENTS

PRINCIPAL

To the Graduates of 1955:

As I sat in my quiet office on Satur for your yearbook, I imagined that your particles have continuelly advised you not etc., until perhaps you have grown tired of true that time is precious, and I predict to realize this more and more.

wking of the theme ers and other older e it wisely, etc.,
However, it is still ow older you will come

There is a sense of time in what Henry W. Longfellow wrote many years ago and I want to leave it with you as my message to you this year:

not sorrowfully into the past; it comes not back again. Wisely imthe present; it is thine. Go forth to meet the shadowy future without fear,

I wish for you the very best that life and time can bring you.

Junior Class

Harry Ball, President; Marylou Bunk, Treasurer; Irene Manzi, Secretary; Fred Meyer, Vice President.

On September 4, 1953, the Class of 1956 entered Beverly High School with a feeling of excitement and eagerness for the activities which were to come.

The first class election took place in November and Harry Ball was elected president; Billy Gobeille, vice president; Irene Manzi, secretary; and Marylou Bunk, treasurer.

"Junior Miss" was presented by the Sophomore Class on Drama Night and was a great success, for it took top honors. The cast included Sallie Boyson, Joanne Bagley, Carol Andreas, Pat Arsenault, Frank Carbone, Joel Black, Lee Turner, Francis Hunkins, Stanley Belastock, Roger Litka, James Low, David Jaquith, Carol Hazell, and Helen Henshaw. Sallie Boyson was awarded the prize for the best actress

Judy Jacobson and Fred Meyer were presented the Good Citizenship Awards at the graduation assembly in June.

Much to the sorrow of each student, came the death of Suzanne Prescott, in the fall of the sophomore year.

After an eventful school year, summer came and with it came high hopes for a successful junior year.

In September, the Class of '56 returned once again to the fast pace at B.H.S. Election of officers came early in the year and Harry Ball again was elected president; Fred Meyer, vice president; Irene Manzi, secretary; and Marylou Bunk, treasurer.

Francis Hunkins, Pat Arsenault, Frank Carbone, Richie Hayes, Barbara Flint, Sue Hull, Judy Jacobson, Connie Goss, and Roger Litka made up the cast of "The Devil and Miss Applebee," which was a delightful comedy presented by the class on Drama Night. Roger Litka received the award for the best actor.

After a very successful football season, Frank Bell and Harry Ball were named as co-captains for next year.

The Class of 1956 anxiously awaits the many exciting activities of their senior year.

Isabel Drinkwater, Secretary; Robert Nolette, President; Marcia Duwart, Treasurer. Seated: Nancy Flewelling, Vice President.

In September, 1954, we entered Beverly High School as bewildered sophomores. Flustered by lockers and other incidentals, we managed to survive our first few days at B.H.S.

The first class election took place in November and Robert Nolette was elected president; Nancy Flewelling, vice president; Isabel Drinkwater, secretary; and Marcia Duwart, treasurer.

"A Date for Bobby" was presented on Drama Night. The cast included Ruth MacLeod, Norman Wallis, William Scott, Linda Densmore, and Sandra Hersey. Norman Wallis received the best actor award. Larry Mersereau and Lorraine Genther helped to make our play a great success.

On February 12, we held our first successful dance.

The Class of 1957 is looking forward to a very enjoyable junior year.

A job that you'll enjoy —
A job with responsibilities

Join the friendly family at the Telephone Company. Work for a company that's known and respected everywhere. You'll meet all kinds of interesting people, work in pleasant surroundings, earn good pay right from the start, with regular raises. And of course, there are vacations with pay, and other telephone benefits.

Ask friends of yours that work for the Telephone Company. Ask about the benefits of a telephone job, the important work you can do.

Come in and talk with us. We'll fill in the details on important telephone jobs open for girls finishing High School. Do it now so you'll have a head start.
